MORE ELECTION NEWS.

Porter's Majority in the State from 3,000 to 5,000.—Chairman Barnum Issues an Address.—Both Branches of the West Virginia Legislature Democratic.—War Between Railroads.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Returns received from 82 counties give a net Republican majority of 6,889. The counties yet to hear from are all Democratic except 1, and gave a Democratic majority in 1876 of 1,566. If there is no change in the returns from these counties the Republicans will have a net majority of 5,323.

FLOYD.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Oct. 14.—Landers, 962; Gray, 1,036; Shanklin, 1,053; Mason, 1,063; Fleming, 1,050; Schmuck, 1,059.

VANDERBURG.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 14.—The official vote of this county shows the election of the entire Republican ticket, except Sheriff, Clerk and State Senator. Heilman, the Republican Congressman, will have a majority of about 350. Porter's majority in this County is 368.

DELAWARE COUNTY.

MUNCIE, Oct. 14.—The canvass of the vote of this county was made to-day, and shows: Porter, 3,614; Landers, 1,843; Gregg, 42; Porter's majority, 1,771. Harrison received for governor in 1876, in this county, 1,360; Porter's majority shows a gain of 411. There was no fight for county officers made except for treasurer and sheriff, for which the democrats had popular candidates. For sheriff, Joel R. McKinney, republican, received 3,544; John R. Dwyer, democrat, 1,883; McKinney's majority, 1,661. For treasurer, Amos L. Wilson, republican, received 3,522; John M. Graham, democrat, 1,838; Wilson's majority, 1,690.

WHITE.

MONTICELLO, Ind., Oct. 14.—White county official gives Porter twenty-one majority; Gray, and the balance of the Democratic State ticket, nineteen majority; Grant, for representative, has ninety-five; Scholl, for senator, has three, and Skinner, for congress, ninety majority.

WAYNE.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 14.—The official count, which was completed at 6 o'clock this evening, gives Porter a plurality of 2,958—a net gain of 592. The county ticket is republican by 2,930 majority, the democrats and greenbackers having a fusion ticket. Tom Browne goes out of the county with 2,975 plurality. Baldwin, republican candidate for Attorney General, got 3,002, and Elliott, candidate for Judge from the Third district, received 2,932. These are the extremes on the ticket.

The Railroad War.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15.—The railroad fight is quite as sharp to-day as it was yesterday, and the different offices are crowded with ticket buyers. The Chicago & Alton dropped limited tickets to $2.70 this morning, and the Wabash immediately to $1.70, they advertising they will sell $1.00 lower than any other road. Unlimited tickets remain at yesterday's prices, $4.70, to both Chicago and Kansas City.

Two Children Perish in the Flames.—BRADFORD, Pa., Oct. 15.—The house of Mrs. George Riley, at Prenticeville, was burned yesterday. Two children perished in the flames.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—For the lower lake region, increasing cloudiness, followed by light rains, falling followed by rising barometer, variable winds generally from south-east to southwest, and change in temperature during the rest of Friday.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Solidly Democratic, and a Majority in Both Branches of the Legislature.

WHEELING, W. VA., Oct. 14.—Only a few counties in the State have reported the result of the vote of Tuesday in addition to those given yesterday. No reports of any consequence have been received from the Great Kanawha Valley region, where the Greenback vote is principally located. The result of the vote in the State, therefore, is the merest guesswork. If the Greenback vote in the State does not exceed 15,000, Jackson's (Democrat) plurality for governor will be about 10,000. Democrats here are claiming the State by from 12,000 to 15,000, and the chairman of the Republican State Committee concedes it by 8,000. In 1876 the Democratic majority in the State was upwards of 14,000, and as the returns from most of the counties thus far heard from, show Republican gains, the majority this year, it is but natural to suppose, will fall considerably below these figures. The vote in Ohio county is not yet fully counted. The entire Democratic ticket is elected by majorities from 30 up to 300. Ritchie county gives Sturgis, Republican, 230 majority, a gain of 105. Lewes county gives Jackson, Democrat, 150 majority, a loss of about seventy-five on the vote four years ago. Grant county gives Sturgis 470 majority, a Republican gain of 39. Both parties are still claiming Harrison county. It will take several days to settle precisely how the State has gone. Melvin and McConnell, Republicans, are elected Judges in the First Circuit. The amendments to the Constitution are adopted by a large majority. The Legislature will be Democratic in both branches.

An Address Issued by the National Democratic Committee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The National Democratic Executive Committee met to-day and issued the following:

To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of the Country:

The election of President and Vice President is now before you. State and local dissensions are eliminated from the issues of the day. The magnitude of a victory or defeat can only be estimated by the forces and means employed in securing it. By fraud and corruption the people of the country were defeated in their purposes in 1876, and the rightfully elected President was kept from office. With the combined capital of the Republican party, aided by repeated assessments upon an army of officeholders, with the power of the Federal Government represented by United States Marshals at the polls, with intimidation, fraud and a resort to every corrupt appliance known to Republican methods concentrated in two States our adversaries have succeeded in procuring the probable return of their local candidates. Can it be possible that in every State throughout this broad land the same methods can be brought to bear that were used by the Republican managers in Indiana and Ohio? Can the great states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, California, Colorado, Nevada and New Hampshire be bought, intimidated, defrauded? Even without the vote of Indiana, which we believe will be redeemed in November, with New York and New Jersey, and the States that are conceded to us, including Maine, the election of our candidates is assured. The Republican party has put in nomination for President and Vice President two men who, by the admission of their own party and press, are unworthy of your confidence and your suffrages. It is impossible that fifty millions of intelligent and patriotic people will consent to place themselves upon the humiliating level thus prepared for them by the Republican managers. Fellow citizens, the first day's repulse at Gettysburg ended on the 3d, with Hancock in the front, in a glorious victory, and that victory secured us our Union. The question is not now the preservation of the Union, but of constitutional government. Hancock is now, as then, in the front. The repulse is now, as then, the omen of victory, which will secure to coming generations the inestimable blessings of civil liberty.

By order of the Democratic National Committee.
WILLIAM H. BARNUM,
Chairman.

THE LATEST NEWS.

To-Day's Election Figures.—Five Persons Injured by the Explosion of a Cannon.—Governor McClellan Addresses the Democracy.—No Cause for Discouragement.—A Farmer Loses an Eye.—General News.

Although the returns of Tuesday's election continue to come in slowly, sufficient have been received to warrant the statement that the Republican candidate for Governor has been elected by a small majority. The official majorities of the Democratic candidates in Allen county will be found in the local columns of THE SENTINEL to-day. At present writing the indications are that the State Senate will stand: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 26; and the House of Representatives: Republicans, 50; Democrats, 46; doubtful, 4.

The Very Latest.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 15, '80. To Supt. Wallick, Indianapolis: Telegraph me immediately the vote for Porter, Landers and Gregg, and say what counties are yet to hear from.

PERRY.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15, 3 p.m. Perry, Fort Wayne:

We have returns from all but three counties. Porter's majority is 6,485. The counties yet to hear from are Perry, Spencer and Vermillion, and gave a Democratic majority of 434 in 1876. The National vote will not exceed 11,000. Signed,

J. F. WALLECK,
Supt. W. U. Telegraph Co.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15, 1 p.m.—Returns from all but four counties give a Republican majority of 5,797. The four counties yet to hear from gave a Democratic majority of 413 in 1876. If the remaining four counties yet to hear from show no change the Republican majority on the State ticket will be 5,384.

Five Persons Injured by the Explosion of a Cannon.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 15.—At a Republican demonstration at Johnsonville last night Chas. Nutting, Willie Welling, Chas. Thomas, John Fay and a Frenchman whose name is unknown, were injured by the explosion of a cannon. Nutting's leg was shattered, Welling's left arm was torn to pieces, and since amputated, it is thought he will die; Thomas, aged 8, had his left leg torn to pieces and will probably die; Fay and the Frenchman were injured slightly.

Had His Eye Knocked Out.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 15.—Last evening a farmer named Jones was struck by a stone which put out his eye. The name of the young rascals are known, and warrants have been issued for their arrest. The young scoundrels had been annoying him by stealing apples from his wagon, to which he very properly objected.

Crime in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 15.—The American's Gallatin special says: "A cold-blooded murder was committed at Lafayette, Macon county, yesterday evening. Joe Cartwright shot and killed Hugh Saunders with a carbine. Saunders was an important witness against Cartwright for stealing. Saunders was sitting in front of a hotel, when Cartwright walked out in the street, and, without saying a word, shot him. Cartwright was immediately arrested and jailed.

Captain H. R. Kent, United States deputy marshal, who had been making arrests for violations of the revenue laws and summoning witnesses, was fired on some distance from Gallatin by unknown parties, who are supposed to be illicit distillers, with shotguns. He was wounded in twenty different places with No. 8 shot, none of which, it is thought, will prove serious.

A Speech from Governor McClellan, of New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 15.—Gov. McClellan addressed the Democrats last evening. After eulogizing Gen. Hancock, he said the Democratic party supported the South before the war, not because it liked slavery, but because it respected the Constitution. When war came it opposed the South for a similar reason. Two things united the South before the war, slavery and anti-tariff. The former is dead, and the South is fast becoming a manufacturing country so that these two elements no longer exist there. The Southern man is mortal, continued the Governor, the same as we are, and all that has made the South solid is the presence of Federal hands and carpet-bagger government. Remove that pressure and the South will cease to be solid.

With regard to the war claims the constitution forbids their payment, and I believe that not a man north or south favors their payment. He then explains why the tariff was enacted, and said that human ingenuity never invented any system of customs not necessarily protective. The Democrats while in control of the government never took any step to interfere with the interests of the country. If he thought for a moment that his party wanted to interfere with any productive interest he would not uphold it. He alluded to three or four skirmishes which had been recently made, and said that success should be balanced with repulses the same as in war. There was no cause for discouragement.

Opera on a Grand Scale.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—The Cincinnati College of Music, to-day published an official announcement of a week of Opera to be given February next, under its auspices at music hall on a scale of magnitude, not possible in any theatre in this country.

National Democratic Ticket

For President,
WINFIELD S. HANCOCK,
Of Pennsylvania.
For Vice-President,
WILLIAM H. ENGLISH,
Of Indiana.

God is merciful; but he never designed Garfield for the Presidency of the Republic.

ANNIE will continue for the fate of Garfield, no matter how the election in Ohio and Indiana has gone.

REPUBLICANS have succeeded in electing a negro to the Legislature in this State—the first time such a thing has occurred since its organization.

THE Democratic party is the party for the people. It believes in the Republic, and that the government is a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

DEMOCRATS do not propose to give up the fight. They are organizing for November, and a grand and glorious victory, sure, certain and overwhelming will be recorded for them.

REPUBLICANS relied on fraud and corruption to carry the Indiana election, and met with great success on Tuesday last. But there is a God, and his vengeance will not sleep forever.

WORKMEN voted the Democratic ticket, on Tuesday last; but there were too many negroes from Kentucky, and bummers from Chicago and Philadelphia who voted with the other party.

It is believed that General Hancock is good for from ten to fifteen thousand votes more than any man on the Democratic State ticket, and that a count of the ballots cast in November will show that fact.

HANCOCK can be elected without the fifteen electoral votes from this State. But Democrats must not take any risks in the result of the November election, but carry Indiana for Hancock and English.

POLITICAL demagogues, office-seekers and shysters in the Republican party cheated thousands of intelligent, honest, hardworking men into voting the Republican ticket, by false arguments, false promises, and false issues.

It is said that crazy man in search of the Presidency, General Grant, did actually find a few hours to spare on Sunday last, when in New York, to cross over to Jersey City, and visit his poor old mother, the second time he has seen her during several years past. What a dutiful son.

It cannot be shown by facts or argument that a protective tariff benefits all classes of community. Democrats are in favor of a tariff for revenue, and that will benefit the workingman, and not increase the amount of the rich man's gold, at the poor man's expense.

WHETHER Mr. Garfield will be withdrawn as anticipated he would be, is not definitely known to the outside world and republican leaders, Conkling, Grant and others are still dissatisfied with Garfield as a candidate and continue their plotting to get him out of the way.

REPUBLICANS never used more corrupt means, never spent more money in buying votes, and never committed greater frauds upon the people than at the election on Tuesday in this State. A victory achieved by such means and under such circumstances cannot be lasting, and will prove their defeat in November.

GRANT'S insanity to become President increases in virulence, and, encouraged by Conkling, is becoming alarming to the Republican leaders, who believe that the scheme to have Garfield resign and Grant take his place, will be carried out, and then what will become of Garfield's promises?

THE principles of the Democratic party are eternal, and the party never dies. Its principles will last with the Republic, and that will continue so long as God, in his infinite wisdom, shall permit. Democracy is built upon a rock and the storms of Republican fanaticism, hatred of the rights of the people and hatred against the best government devised by man, may rage in their fury, but it will stand. Republicanism, as taught by Republican leaders, is opposed to the Republic, and the true principles of government as taught by the founders of the great Republic. It is a centralization of power, is for a strong Government, an Empire. But the people well know this, and when the storm has spent its fury they will again rally about the standard of their country, swear eternal hatred to Republican Imperialism, and prove true to themselves, their country and its free and liberal institutions by wresting the power from the enemy and placing the government in the hands of a true and tried leader, a representative of the people—Winfield S. Hancock.

MANY are finding fault with the frequency of presidential elections, and elections in general, because they distract business. But the New York Sun takes a sort of philosophical view of the subject, and says: We hear complaints of our presidential elections that they disturb business. Perhaps they do temporarily, but they lift men above their sordid interests, and furnish them with the healthy excitement which enthusiasm for ideas produces. Moreover, what a political education they give the people!

THERE must be no faltering now. The contest of Tuesday is only preliminary to the great contest in November. We can carry Indiana for Hancock in November. In November the cattle imported from adjoining States to vote the Republican ticket will be required at home, and the vote will be confined to the qualified voters of Indiana, and if Democrats will do their duty we will elect the hero of Gettysburg to the Presidency in November.

The Democratic party in Indiana contains some of the clearest headed statesmen in the Republic, and is the embodiment of the intelligence, enterprise and honesty of the masses. It is the party of the people guards the interest of workingmen, is opposed to imperialism and in favor of maintaining the Republic as it now is in all its greatness and grandeur. Such a party and with such principles, cannot perish from the earth.

THE civilization of the age is still disgraced by the enforcement of laws of enlightened nations that should be blotted out of the statute books. A convict at Toronto, a few days ago, was bound to a frame of wood and whipped until he became insensible. As soon as he revived the punishment was renewed. At length the attending physician ordered the terrible torture stopped, just in time to save the man's life.

GENERAL GRANT was the guest of the Merchants Association at Boston on Wednesday and made a speech of unusual length for him. It was on the industrial interest of the country and building up a trade with Mexico. The Chicago Times says, Grant having announced himself better qualified than any one else to establish such trade it may be accepted as a home-made argument in favor of a third term movement in 1884.

It will require vigilance, hard work and hard fighting on the part of the Democracy to win the November election; but Democrats are equal to the emergency, know no such word as fail, and the country will be rescued from the hands of its destroyers.

THE election of Garfield would be the vindication of all the Credit Mobilier scoundrels, of all the bribe-takers, of all the rings, and of the crimes by which a defeated candidate was put into the presidency.

THE war of railroad competition on passenger rate, in the West continues to rage with increased fury. Tickets can be bought in St. Louis for almost any price.

THE Democratic forces in Indiana are not dismayed, but are already rallying for Hancock and victory in November.

How It Was Done In Ohio.

The colored brother is not only utilized at the South to vote for repudiation, but is coming into play at the North to help the people decide elections. As yet only one party has the benefit of his industry in voting half a dozen times, but the boom will become more general, and negro repeating will be a general factor in selling close elections. The Cincinnati Enquirer pays a touching tribute to the industry of the imported Senegambian voter in that city on Tuesday. It says:

"The colored gentleman is a talented and industrious voter. The result of the election in this city is largely due to his talents and industry. An ordinary negro can vote where he has a right to vote, but it requires a negro of talent to vote where he has no right to vote, and only a negro of industry can vote repeatedly where he has not even a residence. The election in Cincinnati seems to have been largely determined by negro talent industriously and early exercised yesterday."

And in a more detailed account of the scenes at the polls it says:

That there was fraud, corruption and repeating on the part of Republicans can not be gainsaid. The evidence was palpable. Colored men were marched up in squads, and voted time after time with impunity. They were not arrested because the Republican marshals refused to take anybody into custody unless a commitment was made out on the spot. The whole municipal machinery was in the hands of Republican officials, and they abused their authority in the most shameful and flagrant manner. In the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Eleventh wards the colored brother was found in force, and every one of them had a pistol furnished them by their "bosses"—the Republican strikers. The work house, the jail and the station house were emptied of all who would promise to vote the Republican ticket: money was handled as though it was nothing but brown paper; false swearing was done with a recklessness and abandon almost sublime; the repeater repeated with astonishing pertinacity and every disreputable means was used to swell Republican gains. Doves of employees were marched up to the polls and directed to vote as their bosses dictated under the penalty of instant dismissal if they refused—a beautiful exemplification of the boasted freedom of the ballot under Republican institutions. That there was no more blood manifested than was witnessed yesterday speaks well for the forbearance and respect for order that characterized the conduct of the Democracy whom their opponents goaded by unblinking boasting of their power to buy as many votes as they wanted from the colored element and the criminal classes. That it was not a vain assertion is proven by the result, which will show that the vote has got away with the census.

Of course the officeholders don't want "a change." They have drawn prizes and desire to enjoy their lot till time with them shall fade into eternity, and even then they will be looking out for sinecures. It is a very serious thing—to officeholders—to put out one party and put in another, but it was not "we the officeholders" but "we the people" who founded this government, and the officeholders have not entirely ousted the people. They are in possession, but the people are going before the great bar of public opinion in November to try the title of the officeholders and test their right to hold a valuable property which they have neither inherited nor purchased. The people's case is made up and will be pushed with a vigor and success that will benefit the country and apply some long unused muscle to employments just as respectable but not so profitable as government sinecures.

It looked dark at Gettysburg on the second day, but Hancock brought daylight out of darkness on the third day. The enemy was brought up, this time, in Maine, and the Union soldiers were worsted on Tuesday, but Hancock will bring up his reserve in November and the day will be ours.

Is it not time to stop and think whether the increasing tide of lavish expenditure of money for political purposes is carrying us? How much longer will our institutions stand the collection and distribution of money that neither the source from whence it comes nor the purpose for which it is expended dare be given to the public?

Accept my sincere thanks for that almost miraculous healing remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. It has cured me, and therefore I deem it my duty to give publicity to the fact that St. Jacobs Oil is the best remedy for rheumatism and similar affections.
H. HILLEN, Jefferson City, Mo.

Venus and Jupiter are now so situated with respect to one another that they form a peculiarly attractive feature of the evening sky. Just after sunset, and long before any other star, except Jupiter, becomes visible, Venus may be seen, as white and round as a drop of silver, shining through the yellow haze in the west. At the same time Jupiter, rising in the east, looks yet more lustrous against the dark background formed by the earth's advancing shadow. Thus the two planets may be watched for an hour, the one rising while the other sinks, as if their steps were timed precisely together. Every eye will readily allow the precedence in brilliancy to Jupiter, who, however, only in his perihelion splendor is able to outshine the brilliant Venus.

BURIAL OF A CHINAMAN.

How the Devil Was Kept at a Distance While The Soul's Dinner Was Eaten.

While the gatekeeper at the railroad crossing near the entrance to the Evergreens Cemetery, Brooklyn, was quietly reading the day's news, says the New York Sun, a funeral procession dashed past at a rate that made him spring to his feet, drop his paper, and open his eyes to their widest. The string of carriages were following a handsome hearse, through the glass sides of which a costly casket was seen. The coffin held the body of the late Lee Wan, a Mott street grocer.

On the hearse, beside the driver, sat a pale, gaunt Chinaman in a gown of white silk, with a strip of white linen tied around his arm and a white porcelain bracelet on his wrist, who at intervals of every 200 or 300 feet scattered a half dozen slips of blank paper in the road, in order, it was afterward explained, that the devil, who is believed to pursue the dead, might be detained by his curiosity to examine these papers, until the deceased man could be put under ground out of his reach. The dozen carriages following the hearse were occupied by Chinamen.

The coffin having been removed, not by friends of the deceased man, but by two or three drivers, it was lowered by a couple of grave-diggers. The Chinamen, to the number of about fifty, drew near and threw earth upon the coffin. Then they gathered in groups to talk in their peculiar sing-song fashion, while a half dozen of their number unloaded from a basket the dead man's clothing, several red candles, a large bunch of slow matches, and a box containing victuals. The clothing was rolled into a bundle and burned. The candles and slow matches were set firmly in the earth at the foot of the grave and lighted. The box was then opened, and three bowls of rice, a broiled chicken, and a platted of lean meat, produced therefrom, were placed beside the freshly heaped mound, that the disembodied soul might feed upon them preparatory to taking its flight. The chopsticks were not seen to move, nor was there any perceptible diminution in the quantity of the viands, yet the Chinamen seemed to firmly believe that the spirit of Lee Wan passed that way and partook of the banquet. The tramps in the neighborhood, who had been attracted by the oddity of the procession, eyed the dishes in a way that caused an aged, opium-smoking Chinaman to arouse himself from his dreamy condition, and ere the procession went back at the same swift pace at which it came, to thrust the soul's dinner into the tea box, and make off with it.

After a mat had been spread beside the grave the mourners went up by twos and threes, and, standing or kneeling on this mat, saluted Lee Wan for the last time. The salute consisted of raising and dropping the clasped hands three times, accompanying each movement with a nod of the head, then dropping on all fours and ducking the head three times more, the face almost touching the earth. Each person, after finishing his salute, emptied upon the ground a tiny cup of weak tea that had been poured from a blue and white pot, of a design calculated to craze, a bric-a-brac hunter.

An intelligent-looking Chinaman, with the face of a Tartar, but the clothes of an American citizen, said the candles and matches were burned for the same reason that Christians sprinkled holy water on graves—"to keep the devil off." Where priests were available it was customary to employ them to recite prayers over the graves; but there are no priests in New York, he said, and therefore the burial devolved entirely upon the friends of the dead man.

After the saluting was over, cigars were distributed among the Chinamen, and they re-entered their carriages. The place was deserted a few minutes later, and nothing but the fragrant blue smoke of the slow matches, rising in the hot air, and a small boy loitering near to steal the candles indicated that a heathen burial had taken place.

Cheap Transportation Company.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Delegates met this morning in pursuance of a call for a cheap transportation convention and were called to order in Farwell hall, over four hundred delegates being present, representing the principal Western States, Southern border and Atlantic States.

Hon. Matt Anderson, of Missouri, was elected president, with T. T. Fowler, of New York State, Vice President, and others from Iowa, Kentucky, Illinois, and Michigan; Jonathan Periam, Secretary. The discussion was opened at once and the points chiefly insisted on were that railways should be held to the strictest accountability as to the manner of conducting their business and that national legislation was necessary to enable the country to get the cheapest possible transportation at living rates to consumers.

The Episcopal Convention on the Sale of Church Pews.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—In the Protestant Episcopal convention Rev. Dr. Knight presented a memorial from the church association praying for an amendment of canon 24 to the effect that no church shall hereafter be consecrated in which pews or sittings have been sold, and forbidding the sale of pews or sittings at any future time. In support of the petition the memorialists submit that the best interests of the church demand a formal recognition of the principles first, that our churches should be free and open to all who may choose to worship in them; second, that in them there should be no distinctions on the ground of wealth or social position; third, that when they are consecrated to the worship of Almighty God they should in no sense be the property of a limited number of persons who have bought their pews.

Wendell Phillips for Congress.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—A section of the Greenback party of this city has nominated Wendell Phillips for Congress in the Fourth district.

The use of St. Jacobs Oil is indeed followed by the most wonderful results. More than a dozen cases have come to my knowledge, where St. Jacobs Oil effected speedy cures, but I will only mention one instance. A man suffering for twenty-four years from rheumatism was induced to try the St. Jacobs Oil. He used a few bottles of this truly wonderful remedy, and is now entirely well once more.—W. Reinhardt, Elmore, Wisconsin.

State Notes.

The family of Mr. Adam Coover, of Warren township, St. Joe county, has been sadly afflicted by sickness during the past year. About a year ago they lost a son, a few weeks ago was chronically the escape of their son Frank, while crazed from fever. On Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock their son Theodore, a most estimable young man, aged about 23 years, died of typhoid fever. His suffering during his last hours were terrible. At the time of his death his brother Frank and sister aged 16, were lying ill with the same disease and his father was also ill.

John Fox, of Illinois, was arrested at Connersville for voting illegally on Tuesday and placed under bail in the sum of fifty dollars to answer.

A few evenings since while Charley Porter, of Connersville, was going to Charley Wiggitt's stable to get his horse, two men unknown to him jumped from the alley between Bailey's and Root's and struck him with some kind of a weapon on the nose and face, inflicting an ugly gash and knocking him down. They then rifled his pockets, taking what money he had—about $1.25—and started away. Charley then attempted to get up when they returned and knocked him down again. Before they left they knocked him down once more and cut another ugly gash in his scalp.

Said one of our old subscribers to us the other day, "Do you know that neither of the platforms suits me; as both parties seem to want health, strength and long life, more than anything else, they can not do better than have the Hamburg Drops and St. Jacobs Oil planks included. With these they can weather all storms, political and domestic as well as dyspeptic and rheumatic." His logic was good and convinced us.

A Most Elegant Line of Fine Furniture,

For Sale at Retail, at Strictly Wholesale Prices.

A Rare Opportunity Which House-keepers Will Not be Slow to Embrace.

A year and a half since Foster Brothers conceived the idea of adding a complete line of Furniture to their immense Dry Goods Store, using for this purpose the second and third stories of their mammoth establishment. They saw they could do this without increasing their business expenses a single cent, as the clerks that sold their dry goods could also sell their furniture, thus enabling them to retail at strictly wholesale prices. At the store they resolved:

First: To handle a finer line of goods than had ever before been shown by Fort Wayne houses.
Second: To purchase only of such manufacturers as have a well established reputation for turning out only the best made goods.

Third: To warrant every article sold to be exactly as represented, and not to fail in use because of any fault in its manufacture.

Fourth: To sell all kinds of furniture at not over one-half the profits charged by other houses.

Fifth: To have but one price and that the lowest possible cent at which they would be willing to sell an article, rather than have their customer go out of their doors without it.

They have adhered unflinchingly to these five rules, and the result has been their furniture sales for the first year exceeded the combine sales of any two other Fort Wayne houses.

At present they are exhibiting a nicer line than ever of Parlor, Library, Dining Room and Kitchen furniture of every description, and a most complete line of mattresses and spring beds, and invite you to make all your purchases in that line at their establishment. Goods shipped free of freight charges to all surrounding towns.

ROBBED OF HIS RIG.

Henry Schnelker a Victim of the Horse Thief.

Henry Schnelker, residing in New Haven, together with two or three other friends came to the city late last night and drove to Fox's, on East Main street, for the purpose of getting something to eat.

The hour was late (nearly 1 o'clock) and they hitched their horse in front of the restaurant and went in. They remained somewhat longer than they expected, and about 2 o'clock Mr. Schnelker came out to look after his horse. What was his surprise when he saw the place where a horse and buggy ought to be standing vacant.

He started back into the restaurant and told his friends of his loss and they immediately started out to look for the missing animal, thinking that it had probably become unhitched and wandered off, but their search was unrewarded, and they finally concluded that the animal had been stolen. Sheriff Munson was notified this morning, and at once began search for the whereabouts of the rig. As the party who took it has a good start of the officers his capture is very doubtful.

Spilled Out of a Carriage.

Between seven and eight o'clock last evening two young men named Irvin Tiger and Arthur Stevens were driving down Calhoun street in a carriage. At the South depot railway crossing their steed took fright at a passing locomotive and dashed across the tracks at a lively rate of speed.

Ere the animal had proceeded but a few yards the occupants of the carriage were unceremoniously spilled out, young Tiger alighting on the street railway track and sustaining an ugly gash on the back of his head.

He was immediately picked up by the bystanders and assisted to a neighboring drug store where his injury was properly attended to. The frightened horse continued on his way down Calhoun street for some distance before he was finally checked.
